Our ministry consists of evangelism and instruction of students in the gospel of Christ.

Specifically we meet interested people - those who would like to study the Bible and learn more about Christ. Some of these become believers in Christ. Those we encourage and instruct to live as Christ would want. After several years the student should be ready to move on and take his place in society while continuing to spread the Gospel. Some will become missionaries and pastors. The majority will obtain secular jobs and minister through their local churches.

Some of the methods we use are individual study, personal counseling, small group meetings and workshops, and larger conferences. We want to convince people of the folly of self-centeredness and the wisdom of Christ-centeredness.
