

and make disciples of all nations...

Matthew 28:19,20

Go Therefore

DISCIPLEMAKERS

Men's Conference

Sage: Created, Fallen, Redeemed

Dates: March 30-April 1, 2007

Conference Schedule:

Friday, March 30, 2007

6:30 p.m.- Arrive, register, and settle in (no dinner provided)

8:00 p.m.- Conference begins

Sunday, April 1, 2007

1:00 p.m.- Conference ends

Cost & Registration:

To register go to www.dm.org and send $80 postmarked by March 22, 2007 to DiscipleMakers, PO Box 74, State College PA, 16804

What to bring:

Bible, notebook, sleeping bag, towels,
recreational items and work clothes, including gloves, for Saturday afternoon work project.

VISION: Job, recounting his life before the tragedies struck, writes: "To me they listened and waited, and kept silent for my counsel. After my words they did not speak again....They waited for me as for the rain, and opened their mouth as for the spring rain." (Job 29.21-23). Wisdom in men is a true glory, while foolishness is an embarrassment and a grief. Join us as we explore from the Word of God the calling of men to be "sages;" that is those who know, love, and submit to the wisdom of God and lead others in its richness. We will, together, feast and understand the sweet nature of true wisdom - "My son, eat honey, for it is good; yes, the honey from the comb is sweet to your taste; know that wisdom is thus for your soul." (Prov. 24. 13-14)

Main Speakers:

Mark Fodale

Biography: Mark became a Christian his freshman year at Lafayette and has been involved in campus ministry ever since.

Currently, Mark serves on the Senior Staff team and is the Lehigh Valley Team Leader. Mark and his wife Shannon have been married for 13 years and have four children: Kathryn, Jordan, Laura, and Rebekah. They live in Bethlehem, PA and attend Lehigh Valley PCA.

Ben Hagerup

Biography: Ben grew up in Ghana, Africa where his parents served as missionaries. Ben was deeply impacted by the ministry of Bill Dripps during his college years at Penn State. After graduating from PSU in 1998, Ben joined DM and married Elizabeth. Ben and Elizabeth first served in DM as campus missionaries at Bucknell University and Gettysburg College. Ben and Elizabeth now live in State College, and Ben is training new team leaders in DM and overseeing DM's staff training program. Elizabeth is homeschooling their 4 sons.

Bill Dripps

Biography: In 1981, Bill and his wife Bonnie had a thriving ministry with students at Penn State and there were people who wanted to support them financially. They wanted the donations to be tax deductible so they incorporated DiscipleMakers as a tax-exempt, charitable organization. Bill hoped and prayed God would use him, but he didn't plan to start a new ministry. Much to his surprise, over the first ten years of ministry, DM grew to six missionaries. Many times they had neither the resources nor the knowledge to continue, but God always provided what was needed each time. Today, God has given DM 45 full time missionaries. Bill recruits, trains, sends and supports the many more that are needed. Specifically, Bill focuses on developing leaders.

Dave Kieffer

Biography: Dave works for DiscipleMakers at Gettysburg College, and he is the Mason-Dixon Team Leader. Dave and his wife Marty were married in 1998. They have two children: Jack and Kelly. Dave received his bachelor of science degree from Bucknell University where he first became involved with DiscipleMakers. Dave also received a Master of Divinity from Biblical Theological Seminary in 2003. Dave was ordained as a minister in the Susquehanna Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in America in 2005. Working for DiscipleMakers is Dave's passion because of its "Jesus Driven Purpose." Jesus invested deeply in a few (the 12 disciples). While none of Jesus' followers started out reliable, they later became so as evidenced by their martyrs death. Jesus turned yellow-bellied dabblers into courageous knights willing to sacrifice everything for Him. The world has never been the same since. This is the DiscipleMakers' vision!